Total Circulation	6,552
-------------------	-------

The circulation for the year has been 6,552 volumes of which 2,025 was from the branch at New Rye. This is an average weekly circulation of 126 volumes. This is a gain of 358 volumes over last years circulation and does not include the use of books in the reference room. Postcard notices of new books have been sent out to persons interested in special subjects. Reserve cards have been kept and all possible effort has been made to get the book wanted into the hands of the person wanting it.

Early in January Miss Ritchie brought the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grade pupils of the Gossville School to the library for instruction in the use of the card catalogue. During February a display of books by New Hampshire authors was placed in the reading room. On June 5th a District Neighborhood meeting for library workers was held at the library and twenty-two librarians and trustees were present.

Fifty books have been presented to the library by interested patrons during the year. Mr. Arthur O. Friel, the well known author, presented two of his books, "The Renegade" and an autographed copy of "The River of Seven Stars."

Childrens' Book Week saw a display of childrens' books on Indian life, borrowed from the Library Commission. The children enjoyed this collection and three books from the list have been placed in the library. During Book Week a costume party was held for the school children of the town in the church vestry. Sixty children were present. They came in costume, representing the title of a book or some character from a book.

To the members of the Board of Trustees, the librarian returns grateful acknowledgement for council and interest in the library activities.

Respectfully submitted,

LAURA Y. BICKFORD,

Librarian.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens:

I herewith submit my eleventh annual report of the schools of Epsom, for the year ending June 30, 1930.

There were maintained during the year, seven schools, for a school year of 36 weeks, with no change in the teaching force.

The total school enrollment was 106, with a daily average attendance of 95.83 per cent.

The schools were in session on an average of 350.4 half-days.

Of the seven teachers employed, all have state certificates; five are graduates of a normal school and two are graduates of Dewey Training School.

Health and Sanitation

Disraeli, a wise statesman, studying the influences affecting national prosperity, said: "Public health is the foundation on which reposes the happiness of the people and the prosperity of a country. The care of the public health is the first duty of a statesman." He might have added that the care of public health is not only the duty of a statesman but also of every citizen.

Hygiene, sanitation and physiology are taught in all our schools, with emphasis placed upon pure foods, pure water, need of ventilation, and proper care of the body. Health inspection, conducted by the school nurse, is a great aid to the teacher in imparting the laws of health.

Health inspection of the school children by our school nurse covers diseases and defects of most every kind, such as common contagious colds, acute cases of contagious skin or eye disease, defective eyesight, hearing and teeth, adenoids, enlarged tonsils, malnutrition, tuberculosis, weakness of the heart, curvature of the spine, nervousness, and in fact nearly all contagious diseases.

The school nurse, Miss Douillette, has, with the co-operation of parents, succeeded in having many of these defects remedied by a physician or surgeon who has generously contributed his services for little or no compensation.

The school nurse is working faithfully and successfully for good health in school and home.

Consolidated Schools

In sparsely settled places in our state the one-teacher school may be needed for some years to come. From the report of the State Board of Education we find that there are 44 less one-teacher schools in 1930 than there were in 1929. Other schools might have been consolidated to the advantage of the children.

Following are some of the advantages of a consolidated school: The building is large, well lighted and heated, with grounds well cared for; the number of pupils is large enough so that the teacher may have one or two grades instead of five to eight as is usually the case in a one-teacher school, thereby giving more time for each class and therefore better results; it makes games and plays more interesting and arouses a spirit of emulation in the classroom work; attendance increases; tardiness, absence and truancy decrease.

A large school may have an enlarged curriculum and better equipment, making the teaching of practical subjects, like manual training and home economics, profitable. Better teachers can be employed in the large schools because wages are higher, the classes fewer, and the opportunity for advancement and social enjoyments greater.

The transportation of pupils should receive the utmost care; the vehicle should be comfortable, safe, and driven by a reliable driver; the pupils should be taken from and returned to a place in the public highway nearest to their home.

The public school is one of the most important institutions in American life and is worthy of the most careful consideration. The most important problem is the planning of a school system which will best prepare the young men and women for their life work. Changes in methods or institutions should not be made just to have something new and different, but only after a most thorough consideration. Neither should a method or practice be retained after it has outlived its usefulness. It behooves the citizen to study the problems of the progressive and non-progressive school and decide which they will choose.

Attendance and Child-Labor Law

The School Attendance Law of the state, demanding that every child shall have, at least, eight full years of schooling, has been well enforced. The cases of non-attendance were confined to a few families, who gave as a reason, want of means to furnish the child with proper clothing and food. The Child-Labor laws have been strictly obeyed by all the local industries and no violation of this law has been reported.

The teachers were efficient and did good work, as is shown by the standard tests which were given throughout the year.

The good work accomplished in our schools shows the wisdom of the school board in retaining experienced and successful teachers.

Parents and citizens are invited to visit the schools frequently. Parents, by frequent visits to the school, would form a personal acquaintance with the teacher and learn at first hand the real situation of the class-room, and thereby be able to talk over frankly with the teacher, the interest of the child. These visits would clear up misunderstandings, if any exist, and would make school work more profitable for the child and give to the teacher a greater interest in him.

In conclusion, I express my appreciation for the co-operation and assistance given to me by the teachers, the school board and the citizens.

Respectfully submitted,
 HENRY S. ROBERTS,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

*Mr. Henry S. Roberts,
 Superintendent of Schools,
 Epsom, N. H.
 Dear Sir:*

I herewith submit my third annual report of the schools of Epsom for the year ending June 30, 1930.

Each pupil is given a physical examination at the beginning of the fall term and a record is kept stating the condition of the pupil examined. Follow-up work is carried on throughout the year. Notices are sent to parents if defects are found. Home visits are made and help given to parents in having the defects corrected. Weight charts are placed in each school room and underweights are given special attention of advising of food and diet.

Pupils are watched closely to protect them against communicable diseases.

Through the co-operation of Dr. Bugbee and the Memorial Hospital a number of tonsil and adenoid cases have been corrected. Children have been taken to eye clinics and fitted to glasses. This was made possible through the assistance of Mr. Jay H. Corliss, secretary of the State Board of Public Welfare. Dental clinics were held and many treated. This was done through the generous contribution of the Red Cross.

The statistical report for the year follows:

Number of pupils examined	97
